Space Availability and Processing of Applications
Space is limited and completed applications will be processed on a first-come, first-served basis. Early enrollment is strongly recommended.

Academic Credit
You may choose one of three grading options: Letter grade, Pass/No Pass, or Audit (not for credit). If you choose to receive a letter grade or pass/no pass and you complete the program satisfactorily, you will earn 3 quarter units in UCSD Extension credit.

Transferability of Credit
UCSD Extension is not a degree-granting institution. The school or college in which students are registered determines the applicability of UCSD Extension courses to their degree programs. Students should consult with the institution to verify acceptability of credit prior to enrolling in Extension courses.

Semester Equivalent
3 qtr. units = 2 semester units

Non-discrimination
The University of California, in compliance with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, or age in any of its policies, procedures, or practices; nor does the university discriminate on the basis of sexual orientation. This nondiscrimination policy covers admission and access to, and treatment and employment in, university programs and activities, including but not limited to, academic admission, financial aid, educational services, and student employment. Inquiries regarding the university’s equal opportunity policies may be directed to office of the dean, UCSD Extension, (858) 534-3412.

Students With Disabilities
UCSD Extension provides academic support services to students with qualifying and documented disabilities in compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990. Accommodations vary and are specifically designed to meet the disability-related needs of each student based on current, verifiable medical documentation. If you have special needs, please let us know at least 15 business days before your course of study begins by phoning Student Services at (858) 822-0658 (voice) or (858) 534-3116 (TDD).

Student Conduct
Students are subject to disciplinary action for several types of misconduct or attempted misconduct, including but not limited to:

- Dishonesty, such as cheating, multiple submission, plagiarism, or knowingly furnishing false information to the university
- Forgery, alteration, or misuse of university documents, keys, or identification
- Theft of, damage to, or destruction of any property of the university or property of others while on university premises
- Unauthorized entry to or use of university properties, equipment, or resources
- Disruption of teaching, research, administration, or other university activities
- Physical abuse, threats of violence, rape or other forms of sexual assault, or conduct that threatens the health or safety of any person on university property or in connection with official university functions
- Disorderly conduct, disturbing the peace, or failure to comply with the direction of a university employee acting in his/her official capacity
- Sexual harassment
- The use of “fighting words” when they constitute harassment
- The use, possession, sale, distribution, or manufacture of alcohol on university property or at official university functions that is unlawful or otherwise prohibited by, or not in compliance with, university policy or campus regulations and
- The unlawful use, possession, sale, distribution, or manufacture of controlled substances, identified in federal and state laws or regulations, on university property, or at official university functions.

Students are subject to the UCSD student regulations as published in the UCSD Policies and Procedures, including but not limited to section 22.00 et seq. relating to student conduct and discipline. For further information on the procedures concerning student discipline, write to, Edward Abeyta, Student Affairs Officer, UCSD Extension, Dept. 0176-H, 9500 Gilman Dr., La Jolla, CA 92093-0176.

Please note: UCSD Extension reserves the right to decline to accept any person as a participant in its Jazz Camp, or to require any participant to withdraw from the program at any time.
